1500 petition for soccer Centrals

GIVE 'EM A DECENT GROUND!

Nine
wait

More than 1500 people have signed a petition attacking Altona Council for its failure to help a struggling district sporting club.

The Central Altona Soccer Club, formed nine years ago, is still without a home ground and facilities.

The Secretary of the club, Mr. Joe Marth, told the Star yesterday players had been sharing a poorly - equipped ground in Williams-town with four other teams.

"There's no doubt that we have been losing players — they'd rather go to a club that can provide changing rooms at least," he said.

"For nine years we've been going, but we still don't have anywhere we can build a changing room and shower block.

"We have the tradesmen in the club, and I reckon we could raise a loan to put up a building... if we had a decent ground!"

"Six years ago we first applied for somewhere. We're still waiting.

"They did let us use some land off Millers Road, but that was impossible.

"It was just a quagmire. You couldn't move on it, let alone kick a ball.

"That's when Williamstown Council let us play on Gray Reserve. We were grateful for that, but it has no facilities for the boys."

Last year Altona Council made a point of awarding a certificate of merit to Central Altona champion Paul Gallo.

Paul, who plays in the club's under-16 side, was the only district lad to be picked in the Victorian junior team to play interstate competition.

"They gave him a certificate, and the Mayor Cr. Bill Sommers, congratulated him. But they didn't give him somewhere to play the game," Mr. Marth said.

The petition, signed by 1559 and delivered to councillors on Tuesday night says:

"We sign on behalf of the Central Altona Soccer Club which, after being established for nine years, is still waiting for a permanent ground and proper facilities.

"By signing, we want to show our support for this club and express our wish for council to finally act on this matter."

Councillors will consider the request this week in the light of a proposal to buy recreation land fronting Primula Avenue, Altona North.

Young Libs. move

A young Liberals branch will be formed in the Williamstown - Altona area in the next few weeks.

Mr. Ted Feeney, endorsed Liberal candidate for the coming State election, has announced this.

He said his campaign office manager, Mr. Geoff Waters, had received from young people coming into the campaign office, requests for the formation of a branch.

Anyone interested in joining the party should contact Mr. Feeney on 39 83 704 (work) or 398 1243 (home) or Mr. Waters at the campaign office, 61 Pier Street, Altona.

Mr. Feeney said that never before had there been requests for a young Liberals branch, but now, following persistent requests, members of the party had decided to establish one as soon as possible.

He said he believed many young people were now coming forward due to the vigorous campaign he and his branch members were conducting.

The Williamstown-Altona area, would be greatly benefited by the establishment of a Young Liberals branch. Judging from experience it was the younger members of the community who continually sought to involve themselves in all manner of community affairs.

No go for creek road — Meagher

Altona has had enough money from the CRB, and development of Kororoit Creek Road will have to wait, the Minister for Transport said this week.

Mr. Meagher was replying to a plea from Altona Council for money to upgrade the Creek Road.

Councillors considered the reply on Tuesday night. They agreed to put the matter before the CRB again during its official visit to Altona next month.

Councillors and town hall officers went in a deputation to the CRB late last year after council road money was cut back on allocations of previous years.

The visit was unsuccessful and the council then appealed by letter to Mr. Meagher.

The Minister replied: "I refer to your letter concerning the level of funds made available to council by the CRB, with special reference to funds for the improvement of Kororoit Creek Road."

"I understand that a meeting with the Board was held on October 24. As the council's representatives were then advised, the Board realises the needs of areas for additional finance, but the Board's own financial situation is such that additional grants cannot be made at present.

"As you will know, substantial financial assistance has been given to Altona over a number of years for improvement to major traffic routes.

"This includes reconstruction of Millers Road, where road conditions were poor, and duplication was necessary to carry the high traffic load, now in excess of 11,000 vehicles a day.

"This may be compared with Kororoit Creek Road, where present traffic figures about 4000 vehicles a day, with a peak-hour volume of 700 vehicles.

Craigantina now a restaurant

Williamstown's latest eating place, The Craigantina Restaurant, which is due to open next month, is being run by two footballers.

The footballers, South Melbourne players Steve Hoffman and Gary Harley, have been working on renovations to the building in Nelson Place, since November last year.

The accent is on early town history. Asked why they named

History back in action

The Altona Historical Society gets back into action this year with its first meeting at The Homestead on Wednesday, February 18, at 8 p.m.

The Homestead, Altona's oldest building, is at 128 Queen Street, and apart from being the society's headquarters, houses a museum and the city archives.

The society's president, J. C. Smith, is hoping for a complete attendance at the first meeting of the year, and has invited "anyone historically minded to come along."

No information of the programme planned by the group for 1976 is yet available.

the restaurant Craigantina, Steve said that it was the original name of the two-storey building.

"We thought it appropriate to use its original name," he said.

It was built in 1886 by John Craig, who "struck it rich" at the goldfield and began a stationery business in Nelson Place, when he returned.

Steve and Gary hope to open the restaurant on March 1, but this depends on them getting a liquor licence.

"We can't open till we get our BYO licence which can sometimes take up to 10 weeks, but we're still hopeful of opening on time," explained Steve.

"If we don't open on March 1, it will be within a week."

They decided to open a restaurant in Williamstown because they thought there was the need.

"There are few eating places around here," said Steve.

Neither Steven or Gary has any previous experience as restaurateurs, and will employ a qualified chef. Steve, 24, was a sales representative for an office equipment firm, and Gary 22, was an accountant for Olex Cables.

"We" will be able to cater for most people's tastes," said Steve. "Those who want a good meal for a fair price will be able to buy a three course dinner for $6, while those with expensive tastes may spend up to $12."

He said the menu would mainly concentrate on seafoods and steak.

A feature of the restaurant, which will seat about 50, is the large open fireplace. There is also a sitting room where people can have a drink while waiting for a table.

Partnering Gary and Steve are their wives Pauline and Glennis, who will be doing most of the waiting when the restaurant opens.

All four share a house in Hannan Street, Williamstown.

Steve said The Craigantina would open seven days a week at first, with a 6.30 p.m. start.

"If it proves a success, we may introduce lunches later in the year."

Craigantina — built in 1886 — now a restaurant which will open soon.

Phew! Hold your nose

Passengers travelling from Geelong keep the carriage windows closed as they pass the Maddox Street railway line at Newport.

Sprawling heaps of rotting household rubbish, car bodies and discarded rubble litter the road.

In fact the unofficial dump has become so offensive that the Environment Protection Authority has written to Williamstown Council asking for the mess to be cleared.

The council will do the job . . . and contact land owners in the area asking for their properties to be fenced, or cleaned up regularly.

LICENCE APPEAL IS TURNED DOWN

Reform drinking says SM

A 19-year-old laborer at Williamstown Court was refused restoration of his driving licence and advised to attend alcoholism lectures at St. Vincent's Hospital.

John Francis Stanley Anderson, of Blackshaws Road, North Altona, was advised not to again apply for a licence within six months.

The court heard that Anderson lost his probationary licence for six months in July last year, following a .05 hearing.

Mr. D. Scully, SM, questioned Anderson on his reasons for wanting his licence.

"I don't understand you there," said Anderson. Mr. Scully elaborated, and Anderson said he needed his car to travel to and from work "and for convenience, you know."

He said he had held his licence for six months when he was charged with the .05 offence last July.

Mr. Scully wanted to know what his drinking habits now entailed.

"Well, I just have an occasional drink with my father," Anderson said.

"I don't drink in public no more."

"About once a month, I have a couple with dad."

Mr. Scully: "When was the last time?"

Anderson: "Last Saturday night, I had a couple of small cans with him."

Mr. Scully: "And before that?"

Anderson: "I dunno before that."

Mr. Scully: "You'll have to remember."

Anderson: "I can't."

Mr. Scully: "What about New Year's Eve, Christmas Day, Christmas Eve?"

Anderson: "I suppose I had a few cans then, about three or four on New Year's Eve. I had another couple — two I suppose on Christmas Day and about the same on Christmas Eve."

Mr. Scully: "And before that?"

"I don't know."

Mr. Scully: "What about an end of the year break-up at work?"

Anderson: "I don't know."

Anderson: "I didn't have one because they'd already had it when I started working there. I worked right through Christmas."

"I can't remember when I had a drink before Christmas. I just can't."

Mr. Scully told Anderson about a clinic for drinkers, run at St. Vincent's hospital, by Dr. Santamaria.

"You have a few things to learn — your drinking habits must be reformed," Mr. Scully said.

"A driving licence is a privilege."

"I don't intend to grant your application, and I wouldn't entertain an application from you short of six months."

"If you attend Dr. Santamaria's course, and I strongly recommend that you do, you will be given a certificate which could have an influence on a magistrate hearing your next application," Mr. Scully said.

Jog track by rail lines

Williamstown council has been granted the use of railway land between Ferguson and Giffard Streets for a jogging track and beautification.

A section of the land, which will be leased by council for $10 a year, will be available for car parking opposite Williamstown hospital.

The railways department has asked council for $4000 in advance, "to meet the estimated cost of removing underground cable and relocating signal pull wires in the parking section."

Most of south-East Victoria will be total darkness for seven minutes of daytime on October 23, councillors were told at their last meeting.

The Premier's Department, in a letter to council asked for street lighting arrangements to be made during a solar eclipse, expected between 4.30 and 4.37 p.m., on Saturday, October 23.

Councillors referred the matter to the city electrical Engineer.

Williamstown's chief traffic officer will investigate a complaint from Williamstown Hospital about road safety conditions at the intersection of Railway Crescent and Stewart Street.

The manager of the hospital, Mr. N. Maxwell, asked for an inspection of the junction "as it is extremely difficult when travelling along Railway Crescent to the Hospital to see traffic approaching along Stewart Street."

He said the problem was aggravated through the lack of markings at the intersection.

The traffic officer, the council's traffic committee and residents of McLean Street will discuss and investigate traffic danger to children living in Maclean Street.

The move follows a letter from Mr. W. Dowell, who asked for council action on the traffic hazard in the street.

He said a large number of vehicles used the street, at speed travelling through to Ferguson Street and the Rose of Australia Hotel.

The Rev. Laurie Slee, of Electra Street, has been nominated by council for civil defence courses to be held at Mt. Macedon during September and October.

Pensioner tenants of boat shed sites off Kororoit Creek Road have asked council to reduce their rate bill to $13.50.

Mr. M. O'Connor, Mr. J. Goodwin and Mr. J. Knight told councillors their rates had been substantially increased this year, and asked for a rebate of 85 per cent. of the minimum rate to be given.

Councillors have referred the matter to general committee. The pensioners currently get a concession of 75 per cent.

A subsidy of $12,500 has been approved by the State and Federal Governments for construction of the Liston

Tennis Pavilion in Nelson Place.

The subsidies will come from the two departments involved with recreation.

Councillors will send a letter of thanks and congratulations to the Hazeldean Appeal committee for its work in raising $134,893 towards a home for the frail aged.

Cr. Ron Dawes, in moving that a letter be sent, said the result of the appeal was "a tribute to the committee and the community spirit in Williamstown."

Altona pollution 'significant'

Water off the Altona beach was found to be "significantly polluted" in the most recent test by the Environment Protection Authority.

Portarlington, Werribee South and Dromana got the same rating.

Mornington pollution was "Heavy" — the worst category is "severe pollution."

Williamstown was found to be "lightly polluted".

The EPA says the trend to cleaner bayside beaches continued last week.

It attributes the improved bacteriological readings to lower rainfall and consequent reduced run-off.

Don't kill that snake— unless...

New wildlife laws being drafted by State Parliament will protect snakes throughout Victoria . . . unless the snake is an immediate danger to life.

However, Williamstown Council will be able to employ snake-catcher Mr. J. Nicholls until the legislation is drafted in about three months.

The Fisheries and Wildlife Department has told council several of the new Wildlife Act regulations are still being drafted.

"It is intended that snakes will be protected throughout the State, and it is not yet known if it will be necessary for a snake-catcher to obtain a permit or to be licenced."

"It is suggested that council make enquiries in about three months' time, when the full position will be known. In the meantime council may continue to employ a snake-catcher."

Cr. Tom Radford told councillors on Monday night he believed the new regulations would allow a snake to be "despatched" if it seems a threat or about to attack.

Hello Girls,

There are still a few of the menfolk around that are a little apprehensive of buying some of the skin care lines that are so well known.

I find that Ten-O-Six by Bonne Bell is a good suggestion for these fellows. I don't know whether it is the makeup smell of some of the brands that makes them shy, so here is a lotion that has that medicated aroma you might say. Ten-O-Six is a deep pore cleanser that goes deep down to remove stubborn impurities. At the same time it controls bacteria and other impurities that cause blackheads and pimples.

This lotion is definitely for all skin types — not just the oily skin. It is an asset to any household — for any minor rash, burn, bites or scalp condition.

Mind you there is a Ten-O-Six shampoo. You will be pleased to hear it controls dandruff, oiliness etc. without drawing out any essential oils or artificial hair coloring.

Ten-O-Six have a cleansing bar — a soap — or handy cleansing tissues. Naturally this should be used before the treatment location when used as a skin balancer.

When you come in ask to see the Bonne Bell specials, they are worth it!

Are you simply watching and wish to regain a slimmer figure, or are you lucky enough to have a nice figure and just keen to keep it that way?

Lastly, you may be one of the many compulsive between meal nibblers and wanting to do something about this weight producing habit.

'Dream' centre for everyone

A letter to the Editor.

The Newport Resource Centre, the result of a "dream", will belong to everyone, Ms Shirley Peake says in a letter to the Star-Advertiser this week. She writes:

Like Martin Luther King Jnr. we, too, "had a dream".

A dream of a resource centre where human resources of the community could be gathered to enrich the quality of life for everyone in the district.

A centre belonging to all, where help could be offered and extended when needed... talent pooled... information stored and new skills learned.

Where the lonely could find companionship, the troubled a willing ear, and, above all, where everyone in the district could become involved and share community affairs.

Our ambition was to buy a house in the central shopping area, believing that a house, with its homey atmosphere, would help folk to relax.

We saw ourselves as the link between people, bringing their needs together and all the unused talent lying dormant.

Both the needs and the solutions exist in this community; all that is needed is the vital link.

As with all dreams, there must be an awakening, and ours came with the present economic situation which places us in the position of cutting our cloth according to our means.

But our dream is by no means dead, just a little more limited in scope until we can gauge the extent of public support.

A large number of people in this area would perhaps describe themselves as "battlers" — especially the older folk who have really known the hard times.

Those times when people rallied together and by sharing their troubles, gave one another the courage to rise from despair and battle it out.

That spirit is not dead... it has just been partly smothered by materialism and affluence, and we aim to resurrect it.

Gratefully, we acknowledge the support and the faith of the Williamstown Council which, by allowing us the use of a room in the Newport library, has also given us a chance to demonstrate our faith in the people.

Here we will begin our activities until our own "home" is found. We are also thankful to council for the grant of $16,500 which, with the Whitlam Government grant of $21,000, will enable us to buy our permanent centre.

We hopefully start our project this month.

We see the lonely young mother linked to others in the same situation, able to share perhaps baby-sitting.

The young father battling high costs and unused to handling tools put in touch with the retired expert. An elderly "shut-in" visited by an active but lonely person; the migrant having trouble with form-filling in English exchanging help with someone learning a new language.

The students exchanging help with difficult subjects. The pigeon-fancier needing breeding advice... and so on.

The possibilities at our resource centre are endless.

We intend to start as an information centre to help all to the best of our ability. We have little money, boundless enthusiasm, faith in people, and great expectations.

We welcome your ideas, participation and help — in fact the latter is our greatest need. Without you we are useless.

Help us to help you make our district something special, and a great place in which to live.

Everyone has a part to play. Everyone is good at something. WE NEED YOU!

● Getting together at the first meeting of the Home League at the Salvation Army Community Centre in Queen Street, Altona, are Lieutenant Ray Finger and members of the league. The group, made up of district housewives, meets at the centre each Thursday afternoon for entertainment and discussion.

In Altona and lost... $240 cost

Losing his way from Flemington to Footscray, and finding himself in Altona will cost Mario Loyola $240.

Loyola, of Racecourse Road, Flemington, did not appear in Williamstown Court to answer bail before Mr. D. Scully, SM, on Thursday.

His $100 bail will be forfeited.

Constable Peter Ryan, of Sunshine, told the court he was on patrol in Millers Road, Altona, at 2 a.m. on December 21.

"I saw a white Chrysler sedan travelling south, very slowly," he said.

"It was swerving from one side of the road to the other, and I intercepted."

"The driver, Loyola, was taken back to the police station."

"He said he had drunk about 1½ bottles of beer between 6 p.m. and 10 p.m. the previous evening, and a breath test taken at the station showed his blood-alcohol reading as 105."

"Asked why he had driven his car while affected by alcohol, Loyola said he had wanted to get to Footscray to see some friends."

"He had lost his way."

"Asked to produce his driving licence, he admitted he did not have one. He said it was the first time he had driven the car."

Const. Ryan said Loyola was kept overnight at the Sunshine cells.

Mr. Scully fined Loyola $100 on the unlicensed driving charge and $40 on the .05 charge.

He also disqualified Loyola from gaining a licence for six months.

Pipers march in steps of Flamingoes

West Newport's recently formed marching-girls' team, the Pipers, won four out of five sections of the Footscray Marching Girls' Association annual championship at Maribyrnong Reserve on February 1.

The girls have been formed as a junior team for only six months.

But they won the best team, display and marching sections of the open competition.

Newport's Sharon McIver also won the individual prize for best leader.

The Pipers hope to follow in the footsteps of the Flamingoes, West Newport's marching team of five years ago.

The Pipers train at least three times a week in the grounds of the Altona North High School.

A former member of the Flamingoes — who won four national titles in 1964-68 — is training the Pipers.

And parents are working to raise $2000 to send the girls to Adelaide at Easter for the national marching-girls' championship.

They have already raised $7000 for the red-black-and-white uniforms the Pipers wear.

Greg, Brian break athletics records

Greg McKay, Brian Davidson and Terry Phelan performed well for the Williamstown Amateur Athletic Club at the weekend.

Greg broke the club's under-17 record for the 800 m. event, Brian broke his 110 m. hurdle record and Terry showed a quick return to form.

Competing in the B grade 800m at Olympic Park track, Terry won the event from Greg McKay, transferred from under 17s for some extra competition. Terry also won the 5000m.

Paul Jamieson didn't look balanced in the 200m but won in a time of 22.6. Tony Gaggino ran a personal best of 2.28 in the same race.

In C grade competition, John Condon won the walk in 8:05.6. Ian Jackson and Graham Shaw featured in a blanket finish in the 200 m. Jackson was given second and Shaw third.

John Handley won the 800m in 2:01.1, followed by Steve Mulholland 2:03.8 and Eero Keranen 2:04.4.

In D grade, Peter Thompson won the long jump with a leap of 16ft 5in (5m) and Grant McKay won the 800m in 2:04.1.

Two personal bests were recorded by sub-junior A athletes. Paul Markopoulos ran 2:08.3 in the 800m and Daryl Whinney clocked 18.2 in the 110m hurdles.

Mathew Webster won the sub-junior B 200m in 24.6 and the hurdles in 24.6. Ilias Byrgiotis ran 2:22.1 for the 800m.

The under 15 team tussled with Hakoah-Ajax all day. Final points were Williamstown 56, Hakoah-Ajax 55.

Lex Meaklin set Williamstown on the way by winning the walk.

Shane Bulcock won the javelin with a throw of 37.06m, high jump 1.55m and the shot put 14.58m. Bruce Orchard leapt 5.84m to win the long jump, came second in the 200m with a time of 24.8 and the 800m in 2:17.6.

Darren Greaves, John Martyn, Brendan McKay and Glen Hargreaves all scored wins in the under 14s.

So did Alec Tomkos. He came first in the shot put (13.54m), long jump (5.13m) and 200m (26.8). Walter Serap and Robert Evans were other athletes to perform well.

Cricketers set for an outright win

Williamstown, second on the list, met the Frankston XI for the first time on Saturday.

Frankston are on the verge of the four, and have been in that spot for most of the season.

The visitors won the toss, decided to bat, and were bundled out in 29 overs.

Williamstown batted and were 4/187 at 6 p.m. with Les Joslin slaying the 'Dolphin' attack to make 92 including 29 from one over, (three sixes). The Willi skipper was ably assisted by 'Jesse' James 41 n.o. in a grand stand of 120 runs.

Williamstown didn't set the world on fire at the start, as Phil McTaggart was bowled by Stanley for only five runs.

Kev Tweedly joined Les Meyers and they got the score to half of the Frankston total when Tweedly was caught behind for 12.

Joslyn joined Meyers, and 10 more runs were added before Meyers lost his place lbw to May for 25. John James joined his skipper and runs came quickly.

The climax came in the 26th over when Les hit three sixes, two fours, a two and a single off the bowling of Prendergast.

This really won the Willi fans. His century looked only a matter of time, but he took chances and was caught by Gillard when on 92 runs.

The partnership was 120 runs 4/173. Noel Macleod joined James and they were 4/187 at stumps. An outright looks a certainty — weather permitting.

started well with an opening knock of 62. They managed to reach a total of 177 before being dismissed at 5.55 p.m.

Williamstown bowling was John Fowler 4/11, Peter Whitebourne 2/23, Bert Park 1/34, Laurie Hewet 1/38 and Bill Fowler 2/20.

The games finish this week.

Newport spends day in the field

Newport ANA spent a long day in the field, dismissing St. Bernards for the sizeable total of 212.

Coach Geoff Horsburgh led the attack with 5/61 from a marathon 22 overs in the heat and was well supported by Peter Kellam from a marathon 22 overs.

Given similar conditions next week, ANA should make the runs, but only if its batsmen show more application than in recent weeks.

ANA seconds continued their good form and already have first innings points in their game against La Trobe University.

Batting first the university was all out for only 107 with Neville taking six wickets, Frazer two and Leathers one.

In reply ANA are 4/125, mainly due to a fine hand of 61 by John Frazer.

ANA juniors have the task in front of them after dismissing Colts for 163. Dale Vines was the best bowler with four wickets.

Anyone who wants to join the club should ring Mr. Ray Edwards on 329 5094 (work) or 398 1020 (home).

Presiding over an executive meeting at the club last week, Mr. C. Barnes said he was disappointed with the lack of support the club was getting and was concerned that there were not more members to do patrols at the weekends and during the holidays.

The first general meeting for the year will be held in the clubrooms on Thursday, February 26, starting at 8 p.m.

Training for members is held each Wednesday at 7.30 p.m. in the Life Savers Hall.

Club may close

The Altona Life Saving Club is in danger of folding up next season unless it gets some more members, according to club official, Mr. Ray Edwards.

The season is half over and not one new member has joined the club so far.

With the lack of new members the workload on the existing members is much heavier than it should be.

Anyone who wants to join the club should ring Mr. Ray Edwards on 329 5094 (work) or 398 1020 (home).
